

Chinese New Year Celebration at Henry Ford Community College

Sifu Genie teaches two tai chi classes each week at the Center for Lifelong Learning, Henry Ford Community College. She was asked by the College if members of our school would demonstrate Wu style tai chi as part of a celebration bringing in the Year of the Snake. Marilyn Feingold, Paul Lennon, Bob Roth and Wendy Williams stepped forward and on Monday, February 11, 2013, performed the 54 form and taught cloud hands to a group of participants amidst other celebrations of Chinese culture including chopstick and tea table demos, bookmark calligraphy and Chinese folk dancing.
